TEAM NOTES

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

After opening their 2014 home slate against Vancouver Whitecaps FC last Saturday at Gillette Stadium, the Revs head back out on the road for back-to-back road games at San Jose and D.C. ... after the game in D.C., the Revs will have played four of their first five games of 2014 away from home ... the Revs are winless on the road in 2014, but posted a 6-6-5 road record in 2013, good for second-best in MLS.

NO LUCK AT THE BUCK

Buck Shaw Stadium hasn't been the kindest of away venues to the Revs in recent years ... in the team's five matches at Buck Shaw Stadium, the Revs are 1-4-0 ... the Revs' only victory at Buck Shaw Stadium came on March 21, 2009 – a 1-0 win ... since that match, the Revs are 0-3-0 in their last three games in Santa Clara.

LOOKING TO SNAP WEST-COAST WOES

This weekend, the Revs head to the West Coast for the their first of two trips this season and will be looking to snap a rough stretch in games along the Pacific ... since the start of 2010, the Revs have played 16 on the West Coast (Chivas USA, LA Galaxy, Portland Timbers, San Jose Earthquakes, Seattle Sounders FC and Vancouver Whitecaps FC), posting a 1-10-5 record in those matches ... the lone win out west came in 2012 when the Revs earned a 3-1 win over the LA Galaxy in Carson, Calif., on March 31, 2012 ... last year in 2013, the Revs made four trips to the West Coast, going 0-1-3 with a 4-3 loss (down a man) at Vancouver, 0-0 draw st Seattle and Portland and a 1-1 draw at Chivas USA.

FIRST SHUTOUT FOR DEFENSIVE UNIT

Bobby Shuttleworth and the Revs' defense posted their first shutout of the season in the home opener at Gillette Stadium last Saturday with a 0-0 draw against Vancouver Whitecaps FC ... Shuttleworth made two saves to earn his first clean on the season and the 14th of his career ... last year, the Revs posted a club-record 14 shutouts, which was the second-best mark in MLS.

STEADY PROGRESSION FROM BACK FOUR

After surrendering four goals in the season opener against the Houston Dynamo on March 8, the Revs have rebounded with back-to-back solid defensive efforts ... the Revs have allowed just one goal combined in their last two games ... the team surrendered one goal at Philadelphia in a 1-0 loss at PPL Park on March 15, and earned their first shutout against Vancouver Whitecaps FC in a 0-0 draw at Gillette Stadium last Saturday.

Date	Opponent	Goals Allowed	Result
March 8	at Houston Dynamo	4	L
March 15	at Philadelphia Union	1	L
March 22	vs. Vancouver Whitecaps FC	0	T

OFFENSE KNOCKING ON THE DOOR

The Revs are still searching for their first goal in 2014, but that doesn't mean there haven't been chances ... the Revs took 17 shots – their second-highest total this season – against Vancouver last Saturday, a figure that's one shy of the team's season high (18 at Houston on March 8) ... despite still remaining goalless on the season, the Revs are tied for fourth in MLS in shots (41), four shots shy of second place Kansas City (45), and two shy of third-place Portland (43).

... BUT THREE GAMES DRY

The Revolution have been shut out in their first three games of the season, a first for the team ... while the club set its team-record scoreless streak last season - March 9 through April 20, spanning 394 minutes and six games (including four straight shutouts) - it did score in the first match of the season before going scoreless.

THREE GAMES, THREE DIFFERENT LINEUPS

Through the first three games of the 2014 season, injuries have forced the Revs to put out three different lineups ... only five players have started all three games this season: Teal Bunbury, Diego Fagundez, Bobby Shuttleworth, A.J. Soares and Chris Tierney ... the team has started nine different midfielders and six different defenders through three matches.

CREATING OPPORTUNITIES THROUGH CORNERS

In addition to the team's 41 total shots, the Revolution is also ranked third in MLS in corner kicks with 23, three behind league leader Kansas City (27) ... Chris Tierney has taken a team-high 10 corners, while Kelyn Rowe (6), Daigo Kobayashi (4), Diego Fagundez (2) and Lee Nguyen (1) have also stepped to the flag.

IMBONGO MAKES SEASON DEBUT

Dimitry Imbongo saw his first game action of 2014 last Saturday against Vancouver ... Imbongo came on in the 81st minute, making his first appearance since the team's 3-1 loss to Sporting Kansas City in second leg of the Eastern Conference Semifinals ... Imbongo made a career-best 21 appearances (including 11 starts) in 2013, while scoring three goals and adding four assists.

50 THE NEXT STOP FOR ROWE

If Kelyn Rowe cracks the starting XI against San Jose this Saturday, it will mark his 50th career start in MLS, all of which will have come with New England ... Rowe, now in his third year in MLS, has made 65 appearances in three seasons ... the midfielder has scored 10 goals and recorded 13 assists in his young career, thanks in large part to a stellar sophomore campaign in 2013 where he led the team in assists with eight and also added seven goals.

ANOTHER START, ANOTHER 90 FOR GONCALVES

Jose Goncalves returned to the starting lineup for the team's home opener against Vancouver last Saturday at Gillette Stadium after missing the Philly game in week 2 ... in true ironman fashion, Goncalves played another full 90 at center back ... Goncalves has now made 36 career appearances with the Revs – all starts – and has played every minute of every game in which he's appeared.

FARRELL'S VERSATILITY SHINING THROUGH

Andrew Farrell has made two starts in 2014, both at different defensive positions ... his first start of the season came at center back on March 15 at Philadelphia ... last weekend, Farrell returned to his more familiar right back spot against Vancouver ... while a defensive stalwart, in the 61st minute, Farrell showcased his speed and footwork with a 40-yard run with the ball at his feet, shaking off two Vancouver players – including speedster Darren Mattocks – and finding Kelyn Rowe coming up through the midfield.

THE BEARD BET

Andrew Farrell is styling a growing beard, and it's all because of a bet ... in the off-season, Farrell challenged his brother, Will, that he would grow a beard until he scored his first MLS goal ... after coming oh-so-close against San Jose last year - Jon Busch made a shoe-string stop on a full extension to his right - Farrell is determined to score his first MLS goal this year - or have a growing beard for the season.

REVS ARE YOUNGEST STARTING SQUAD IN MLS

With the the 2014 MLS season underway, the Revs are the eighth youngest team overall in the league (as of March 25) ... however, the starting 11 that Jay Heaps put out in week 3 was the youngest in the league, just as it has been in each of the first three weeks of the season.

Rank	Club	Avg. Age Week 3 Starters	Team Average Age
1.	New England	25.27	25.18
2.	Columbus	25.91	24.81
3.	Philadelphia	26.00	25.03
4.	Toronto	26.36	24.86
5.	FC Dallas	26.91	24.90
6.	Vancouver	27.00	24.17

HOW THE ROSTER STANDS

The Revs have 27 players on the roster in 2014 ... of those 27 signed players, 20 were with the Revs in 2013, including two goalkeepers, eight defenders, six midfielders and four forwards ... the roster includes six international players, two Homegrown players, and one Designated Player ... more importantly, nine of the 11 starters from the Revs final game in 2013 – a 4-3 aggregate loss in extra time to Sporting Kansas City in Eastern Conference Semifinal – are all back this season.

PICKENS, WE NEVER GOT TO MEET YOU

On Friday, March 21, the Revs acquired veteran goalkeeper Matt Pickens from Colorado through the Waiver Draft ... initially expected to add further competition at the goalkeeper position with Bobby Shuttleworth and Brad Knighton, Pickens was surprisingly sold to the NASL's Tampa Bay Rowdies on Wednesday, March 26, for an undisclosed transfer fee ... Pickens never got to join the Revolution despite being added to the team's roster, and went on to join Tampa Bay this week.

STEADY PROGRESSION FROM HEAPS

In 2014, head coach Jay Heaps is now in his third season at the helm of the Revolution ... Heaps guided the Revs to significant improvement from his first year (2012) to his second year (2013), and hopes to continue that upward trend in year three.

TEAM NOTES

YES, FAGUNDEZ IS STILL A TEENAGER

Diego Fagundez, still a teenager, is now in his fourth year as a member of the Revs ... Fagundez, who turned 19 on Feb. 14, had a career year in 2013, scoring 13 goals (to tie for fifth in MLS) and added seven assists to lead the club in scoring ... the Leominster, Mass., native was also voted team MVP ... his 13 goals last season all came from the run of play, and marked the highest season goal total for a teenager in MLS history – and he is the only teenager in MLS history to score 10 or more goals in one season ... Fagundez now has 17 goals in his career and holds the league record for goal scoring by a teenager, last set by Eddie Gaven (16 goals).

Rank	Player	Teen Goals
1	Diego Fagundez	17
2	Eddie Gaven	16
3	Jozy Altidore	15
4	Freddy Adu	12
5	Andy Najjar	10

“ROWEING” TO WINS

Kelyn Rowe had one of the more impressive sophomore campaigns of any MLS player in recent history ... the 22-year-old scored seven goals and added a team-best eight assists in 33 appearances last year, while developing his now familiar “Roweing” goal celebration ... his two-year resume is so impressive that Rowe has already been cited as an upstart candidate for 2014 MLS MVP: “A lot of that falls on the shoulders of Rowe, who has the talent to be an MVP candidate. Seriously: He is one of my dark-horse picks this year...” – Matt Doyle, MLSSoccer.com analyst.

BATTLE BETWEEN THE POSTS HEATS UP

Bobby Shuttleworth and Brad Knighton are both fighting for the starting goalkeeper position in 2014 after the retirement of Matt Reis in 2013 ... both have been periodic starters in their careers, but both have yet to establish themselves as consistent day-to-day starting goalkeepers ... Shuttleworth earned the start in the first three games, but according to Heaps, the competition will be ongoing throughout the season.

Goalkeeper	Shuttleworth	Knighton
Games Played	46	35
Games Started	44	33
Minutes	4094	2964
Shots Faced	199	168
Saves	131	121
Goals Against	64	44
GAA	1.41	1.34
Shutouts	13	7
Record	13-23-10	13-11-9

Heaps on the goalkeeping situation: “I think both keepers have shown really well. It's not one of these things where the day one starter gets named and the competition is over. This competition – and when I say it, it's a very good competition – both guys root for each other and they know each other well. There's a kind of support for each other. I think that it's one of those things that is going to go on all year. It's not going to be the day one starter, and then whoever it is, he's the starter for 34 games. I think there's going to be a battle throughout the season.”

SHUTTLEWORTH THE STEADY

Bobby Shuttleworth is coming off a career season in 2013, and hopes to parlay that into another successful campaign in 2014 ... last year, he made career-highs in appearances (23), starts (22), minutes played (2,063) and saves (64) ... after assuming the day-to-day starting role in mid-April, Shuttleworth went on to post some of MLS' top goalkeeping numbers by midseason and garnered MLS All-Star consideration mid-season ... a tall keeper who communicates well and organizes his defenders well, Shuttleworth is now in his sixth MLS season with 46 appearances, 44 starts and a career goals against average of 1.41.

SECOND TIME AROUND

Brad Knighton has re-joined the Revolution for his second go-round in New England ... the goalkeeper came to the Revs in December via trade with Vancouver Whitecaps FC on the same day that club legend Matt Reis retired ... in exchange for Knighton, the Revs traded a conditional pick in the 2015 MLS SuperDraft to Vancouver ... Knighton began his MLS career in New England and stayed with the Revs for three seasons (2007-2009), making six appearances and posting a 1-2-3 record ... following his initial stint with the Revs, Knighton spent the 2010 season in Philadelphia (3-3-1, 1.10 GAA) after the Union selected him in the Expansion Draft ... Knighton played the last two seasons in Vancouver, making 21 appearances while posting a 9-6-5 record with five shutouts.

TIERNEY'S LEFT FOOT TOPS ALL

Chris Tierney, the Revs' longest-tenured player, is one of MLS' most dangerous - and accurate - free kick takers ... the left-footed Tierney topped Opta's list of most accurate free-kick takers since 2011, as published by MLSSoccer.com early in 2014 ... his average deviation off target of 7.81 degrees bettered second-place Jeff Larentowicz ... Houston's Brad Davis - considered by many the top set-piece taker in the league - had a variance of 13.24 degrees off target.

BENGTON SCORES AGAIN FOR HONDURAS

Jerry Bengtson, CONCACAF's leading scorer in qualifying for the 2014 FIFA World Cup, was called up to represent Honduras during the country's March 5 friendly against Venezuela, where he scored a goal in the 2-1 win ... Bengtson, who re-joined the Revolution in Houston on March 6, has 41 appearances for Honduras and has scored 19 international goals ... he is expected to be the Revs' lone representative at the 2014 FIFA World Cup in Brazil, representing Honduras.

“HOMETOWN” FEEL ON THE ROSTER

Four players on the Revs' roster – and the head coach – are New England natives, giving the team a true hometown feel:

Scott Caldwell	Braintree, Mass.
Charlie Davies	Manchester, N.H.
Diego Fagundez	Leominster, Mass.
Chris Tierney	Wellesley, Mass.
Jay Heaps	Longmeadow, Mass.

Both Caldwell and Fagundez played for the Revolution Academy and are Homegrown players ... Tierney and Davies played together on the Boston Bolts, before playing collegiately at Virginia and Boston College, respectively ... Heaps, who was born in Nashua, N.H., and raised in Longmeadow, Mass., has been a member of the Revolution organization for 14 seasons now, as a player, broadcaster and now head coach.

ROCHESTER AFFILIATION RENEWED

The Revolution and the Rochester Rhinos (USL PRO) have renewed their partnership that makes the Rhinos the official USL PRO affiliate of the Revolution ... this is the second year of the teams' affiliation and is one of the founding partnerships of the MLS and USL PRO relationship that launched in 2013 to help further the development of professional soccer in the U.S. and Canada ... the agreement calls for the Revolution to loan a minimum of four players to the Rhinos for the season ... Rochester head coach Bob Lilley joined the Revolution in Bradenton, Fla., for a part of its 12-day training camp to observe players and collaborate with the Revolution coaches.

SANCHEZ THIRD PLAYER LOANED TO ROCHESTER

Jossimar Sanchez became the third player loaned to the Rochester Rhinos, the team's USL PRO affiliate, last week ... goalkeeper Luis Soffner and midfielder Alec Sundley joined the Rhinos on March 13 and will be available for selection once the team begins its 2014 season on April 5 in Orlando ... a total of four players will be loaned to the Rhinos per the teams' affiliate agreement, and the Revs can re-call any of its players at any time.

NEXT GAME TO BE TELEVISED ON myTV38

The Revolution's next match - Saturday, April 5 at D.C. United - will be televised on Boston's myTV38, rather than Comcast SportsNet ... because of a direct conflict with the Boston Celtics' game at the same time, rather than try to configure temporary alternate channels, Comcast SportsNet and the Revs worked to find a solution that would allow more fans to see the game live ... myTV38 was the Revs' broadcast come from 2007 through 2009, before the Revs moved to CSN.

NEXT HOME GAME ON A NEW SURFACE - REVOLUTION 2.5

When the Revolution finally return home to Gillette Stadium for their April 12 match against Houston, they'll be playing on a new surface ... work began this week to rip up the current FieldTurf product (Duraspine PRO), and replace it with FieldTurf's latest offering: Revolution 2.5 and the VersaTile drainage and shock underlayment ... the Duraspine surface did not have an underlayer, but the new Revolution surface will ... the Revolution surface is also installed at CenturyLink Field (Seattle) and Providence Park (Portland), with the Providence Park surface completed this winter ahead of the 2014 season.

FLAG OF NEW ENGLAND

Long before the sewing of the American flag as we know it – before there were the United States, and hundreds of years before its slightly-altered stars and stripes emerged on the Revolution club badge – a flag of a different design was flown proudly in the early colonies that now comprise New England.

Historic Revolutionary War artist John Trumbull's depiction of the Battle of Bunker Hill featured a red flag with a green pine tree, which often served as a representation of the New England colonies. While historians argue the exact dates of origin of this early flag, over time, the design stood out as a symbol of honor for the territory.

It was a reflection of unification. It's flown as an homage to the region's pride and passion.

No group has more pride or passion than Revolution supporters, who have flown the flag of New England in Gillette Stadium, and the former Foxboro Stadium, since the club's inception in 1996.

With such a deep connection to both club and country on many different levels, the flag of New England now adorns the Revolution's uniforms – both as testament to the region's revolutionary history, and as a visual representation of the club's supporters.

Situated on the back of the jersey, at the base of the neck – a position reserved for the most meaningful representations on soccer jerseys - the flag of New England now lives in honor on the back of every New England Revolution jersey.

Sitting above the players' last names, the Revolution and supporters alike are reminded that the club holds true to its community's historic roots in reverence, and continues to proudly represent the historic region of New England, while symbolically bringing the supporters onto the field, each and every game.

Postseason Record: 1-1-0

Jay Heaps is in his third season as the head coach of the New England Revolution and his journey to revitalize the Revs as they return to the upper echelon of Major League Soccer continues after a breakout 2013 campaign ... Heaps has installed a new winning attitude and an exciting, possession-oriented playing style that focuses on the team's dynamic young talent ... after qualifying for the MLS Cup Playoffs in his second season at the helm – and surging up the standings in the final month of 2013 – the Revs are poised for even greater improvement in 2014 ... with the team's core set to return – one that not only turned heads offensively in 2013, but also sat near the top of the league all season defensively – the Revolution is looking to challenge for Major League Soccer's biggest prize this season: MLS Cup ... guiding the up-start, re-built Revs to a 9-17-8 record in his first season in 2012, Heaps turned the Revolution around in 2013, taking the team to a 14-11-9 record, 51 points – the second-highest point total in club history – and a return to the postseason ... behind a precocious group of young players – highlighted by Homegrown star Diego Fagundez, Kelyn Rowe (Heaps' first-ever draft pick) and Andrew Farrell (the number one pick in the 2013 SuperDraft) – as well as off-season signing Jose Goncalves, who ended the campaign as the league's defender of the year, the Revolution turned heads around MLS ... after stepping away from his 11-year MLS playing career following the 2009 season, Heaps returned as the new head coach of the Revolution in November 2011 ... with his appointment, he brought to the bench some of his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, passion and tirelessness.
